A WAR TO END ALL WARS [DVD]

A lavish production featuring two fascinating and unique tales of World War I, this Reality Films DVD is an absolute must for any World War enthusiast. Complete with historical re-enactments and battle scenes, historically researched costumes and locations all across Europe help the viewer live and feel the experience firsthand.

In "Murder on the Hill" we follow UK Broadcaster Robin Thompson as he reveals an untold and tragic tale. Ruthless and incompetent military command resulted in the deaths of many brave men. Hear for the first time the shocking truth to an untold chapter of the Great War.

"A Soldier's Return" takes us on a fascinating journey from 1916 to the present day. We see and hear the tragedy of war firsthand and experience the recreated sights and sounds of battle of those who were there. We learn the story of Corporal Robert Beveridge - a born leader, decorated for bravery in the field - who was forgotten for so long but is now immortalized. This is a story of a generation we must never forget.

This DVD is a milestone collectible for all World War enthusiasts.

Written, directed and produced by Charles Sandbach, with Ian Livesey, John Duncan, Michael G. Welch and Taff Gillingham. Filmed on location in the UK, France and Belgium by Inspired Productions for Reality Films.
